

Program:

Support to the Planning Community of Practice

IWR Contact: POC

Description: IWR provides support to Planning Community of Practice in developing new policies, procedures and tools to improve the practice of water resources planning; in developing processes to ensure the quality of models and tools; and, in developing and implementing training programs designed to enhance and maintain planning capability.

Web Site:

